The Ballot

Olga Palenski, Assistant Town Clerk, tries out a ballot in one of the "Votomatic" balloting machines, now in use in all of the town's precincts. About 3,000 townspeople are expected to turn out for Monday's election.

Campaign Windup Monday

The race for two School Committee seats dominated the Andover campaign scene once again this year, but come Monday, Andover voters will also cast their ballots for a selectman, a moderator, and a housing commissioner.

According to Town Clerk Elden R. Salter, the town's 14,047 eligible voters will have an added convenience this year of early morning balloting.

Polls will open at 7 a.m., and close at 8 p.m.

Town Moderator William J. Dalton is once again running unopposed for his seat, as is John B. White for the Housing Authority. Dalton's term will be one year; White's, five.

FinCom Hearing Is Wednesday

A public hearing on the special articles in the annual Town Meeting warrant will be held by the Finance Committee Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the West Elementary school Auditorium.

Anyone interested in any way, for or against any special article calling for an appropriation of money, is invited to attend and express his views to the Finance Committee.

This meeting is purposely held before the Finance Committee has voted on any article and is for their information as well as for that of other town officials and the public as a whole.

Selectmen.

Also relatively quiet has been the three-man contest for the school committee seat being vacated at the end of one term by Committeeman William Lane. Lined up for that three-year term are Arthur G. Ahern, an educator who is pupil administrator for the Title II program; Gary A. Townsend, a youthful graduate of Andover High; and Elaine F. Viehmann, teacher-director at the Christ Church Nursery School.

The biggest fuss has been over the one remaining year on the term to which John G. Wragg was elected two years ago. Wragg resigned last fall, and William Van N. Washburn has been the interim appointee on that board.

Seeking the one year office are David R. Ahouse, a research scientist; Ethel V. Howard, homemaker; and Pasquale A. Marino, assistant dean of graduate studies at Lowell Tech.

The only "question" voters must answer this year is one on which they voted "yes" three years ago: whether or not licenses should be granted for beano.

The issue was placed on the

New HUD Program May Assist Elderly

A federally-funded program to spruce up some 50 senior citizen homes in the downtown area, was given the nod by the Andover Board of Selectmen Monday night.

Assistant Town Manager Sheldon Cohen was given the green light to apply for $81,000 for the program, from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

In his presentation to the selectmen Monday, Cohen said the "target area" for the project would be Chestnut and Summer Streets, and Main Street through Shawsheen Square.

Within that area, he said, are some 1715 senior citizens, about 380 of them homeowners. Townwide, he said, statistics show that about 35 percent of the seniors are at or near the poverty level in income.

Under the plan, he said, an inspector would go into a home on the request of the owner, and cite violations of the minimum housing standards. Necessary improvements would then be made with the help of no-interest or low-interest loans, or out and out grants, depending on the owner's financial situation.

Hockey Stays; Budget Slimmer

A host of parents turned out at the School Committee's special budget session last night to protest the dropping of hockey, only to find out that the School Committee didn't plan to at all.

The possibility had been mentioned by Athletic Director Richard Swift, after he was told by the committee to trim the student body account by some $30,000.

Tuesday night, however, the committee indicated it had no desire to do away with hockey, and ordered Swift to trim the overall account without dropping any programs and report back.

The committee will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the West Elementary School Auditorium, for the swearing in of the two candidates successful in Monday's election.

A discussion of goals will follow, according to Chairman Frank Griggs, with an overview of the budget. He said they hope to complete the budget by the following week.

Liquor Licenses Postponed

The granting of the one liquor license that's up for grabs in Andover was postponed by the Selectmen Monday night, largely because of a legal technicality.

The question of whether or not the applicant must have a lease-hold on the property for which he's seeking the license, arose after the three applicants - S. Joseph Hoffman, Arthur A. Collins, and Philip G. Pizzano - had stated their cases.

Hoffman and Collins both propose to open up discount, supermarket-style operations in the north side of the old Woolworth Building at Shawsheen Plaza. The premises were most recently occupied by Resnick's Hardware, and are presently vacant.

Neither Hoffman nor Collins have a lease, but each has negotiated with the owner of the building.

Pizzano, however, seeks to upgrade his wine and beer-only license to a full liquor license, at his present location a parking lot away from the other site.

Pizzano and his wife Ida own the Plaza West Beverages, at the rear of 211 North Main Street.

The legal matter arose during questioning by selectmen, and Town Counsel Alfred Daniels said it was his interpretation that an applicant must have a lease before he can be issued a license.

He said all that Hoffman and Collins had was a letter of intent that a lease arrangement could be made if their applications were successful.

"In my opinion it does not meet the statute," he said.

Domenic S. Terranova, Hoffman's attorney, countered with his interpretation that the law requires only an application for a particular place. He agreed to file a brief on the issue with the Town Manager before the next meeting, while Collins said he would defer to the Town Counsel's opinion.

William Dalton, attorney for Pizzano, said he would file a brief, though, he added, the issue did not apply to his client, who already has a store.

Terranova had earlier described Hoffman's proposal of a 6,000-foot sales area in the mass-merchandising style used by liquor stores at many shopping centers. He particularly mentioned stores at the North Andover Mall and the Atlantic Shopping Plaza in North Reading.

He said the Shawsheen loca-

Jaycees Seek New Members

An informal meeting for men interested in becoming members of the Andover Jaycees, will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight at the Andover Inn.

According to local President Bruce Deery, at least three state and regional officers will also be on hand to discuss Jaycees and answer questions. Expected to attend are Chuck Sukala, president of the Massachusetts Jaycees, and Ray Viens and John Kuczynskis, state vice-presidents.

The Jaycees is an organization for young men between the ages of 18 and 35, and its purpose includes personal and community development, particularly through involvement in community activities.

There is also an associate membership for men over 35.

Both members and those interested are invited to attend.

Those who are interested, but cannot make Thursday's meeting, are asked to contact Phil Coppola, 22 Woburn St., Andover.

AHS Winter Carnival Is March 7-8

The Andover High School Senior Class is completing plans for its second annual Winter Carnival Weekend, March 7 and 8.

The weekend will start with an Italian Spaghetti Dinner Friday, March 7, in the High School cafeteria. Dinner hour will be 5 to 8 p.m.

Saturday, March 8, there will be continuous activities in the High School cafeteria from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., including contests, games and refreshments.

Tickets for the Spaghetti Supper can be purchased at Liggett Rexall, Shawsheen Plaza; Andover High School; and McDonalds on Main Street, March 1 from 12 noon to 7 p.m. The public is invited.

Snow protects trees in winter from drying out preventing high winds and low humidity from evaporating water from the branches and twigs, according to the Massachusetts Audubon Society.

Andover Youths Win Statewide Art Awards

Five Andover youths have received the prestigious blue ribbons in the 1975 Massachusetts Scholastic Art Awards Contest sponsored by the Boston Globe.

The awards were presented in special ceremonies yesterday afternoon at Faneuil Hall, Boston, and the youths' works are now on exhibit at the Saltonstall Building, Government Center.

High schoolers winning blue ribbons were William Buzzett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buzzett, 6 Deerberry Lane, and Ellen Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young, 9 Abbot St., for an oil painting.

Three from East Junior High also took the top awards. They were Jon Marc Brideau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brideau, Ballardvale Road, with a textile print; Karen Klick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Klick, Brookfield Road, for a graphics design; Christine Lawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Lawson, Abbot Bridge Road, for a wallpaper print.

Receiving the second-place "gold keys" were high schoolers Douglas Campbell and Meryl Halbach. Their work is also on display, along with that of the following students from East Junior High: Gayle Anderson, Sandy Dearborn, Bonnie Hanby, George Monks, Anne Skillings, Glenn Tomlinson, Charlotte White, Anne Wobesky and Michael Uska.

There were more than 8000 entries in the contest from all over the Commonwealth.

Candidates Express Views At LWV Program

Downtown improvements, parking, school committee conflicts and busing were on the minds of some 250 voters who turned out at West Junior High Tuesday night to see the candidates for Monday's election in action.

The League of Women Voters' sponsored forum is traditionally the largest formal presentation of all the candidates in the campaign.

The crowd would have been larger, some charged, if it weren't for another attraction up the street at West Elementary School. There the school committee met to discuss its budget, and rumor had it they were considering cutting boys' hockey from the sports program. An estimated 40 parents turned out there in protest.

League President Sue Tucker, moderator for Candidates' Night, led off with an introduction of Incumbent Town Moderator William J. Dalton, who is running for another term.

Answering a League question about the criteria he uses to appoint members to the Finance Committee, Dalton said he looks for someone with common sense and the ability to disagree without being abrasive.

He also tries to maintain a "balance," he said, adding that with an enlarged FinCom, it is possible to find specialists in various pertinent areas. He said he selects members from nominations he receives from the Committee to Improve Town Meeting.

Downtown Changes

George W. Connors, Jr., was the first of the two selectman candidates to present a three-minute statement of his priorities for downtown changes.

First, Connors said, he would alleviate traffic congestion, possibly by one-way streets or by making Main Street "local" and rerouting "through" traffic down School and Railroad Streets.

He said he would also work with the business community to stimulate downtown growth, and to make the area more "attractive" with the help of shrubs, flowers and the like.

Most people, Incumbent Selectman Alan F. French said in his presentation, like the Center the way it is now; they like to think of Andover as a typical New England town.

However, he said, there must be a resolution to the conflict of keeping that ambience, and coping with the congestion that will be created if the town doubles in population. French said he avored a broad-based, ad hoc committee to study the problem.

Perhaps, he said, municipal offices could be moved to areas nearby, freeing up that space, but keeping its character. He also mentioned the continuing of long-term planning for a bypass.

After subsequent drilling from the audience, French said that the "wisdom that established the Route 125 by-pass some years ago is quite evident today," and that the town should perhaps be looking at a similar bypass for Route 28 in the future.

Connors disagreed with French's comment that downtown parking was no problem now, except during rush hours.

Bus riders take up most of the available parking spaces, Connors said, and suggested that the buses be rerouted, using the old train depot as a stopoff point. There's plenty of parking in that area, he said.

In answer to another question from the floor, French said he would fight "tooth and nail" against an oil refinery in Dracut, if it were to have an adverse affect on Andover.

"It's not just proximity," Connors added, "but with the prevailing westerly winds, Andover could become another Secaucus, N.J."

Teacher - Student Input

Arthur G. Ahern drew the first crack at the League's question posed to school candidates. How much teacher and student input should be included in a school committee decision. He was followed by the other two candidates for the three-year opening, Gary A. Townsend and Elaine F. Viehmann.

Ahern said he would like to see as much participation by the two groups "as necessary to get adequate representation."

He said he considered teachers first as employees, who have "adequate" representation through their organizations, committees, the administration and principals.

However, he said, he also sees them as the "greatest resource in the public schools," and in this role, he saw an expanded input.

He also envisioned establishing new standing committees to the school committee with teacher representation, and a new mechanism - a work session between the superintendent and school committee, with teacher representation.

The unfortunate thing, Townsend said, is that no matter how many opinions they get, the committee still are the ones who vote.

He suggested that the committee be more open minded, with no preconceived notions, and with more input from students and teachers. But, he concluded that "the best input is the ballot box next Monday."

"It is the responsibility of the school committee," said Mrs. Viehmann, "to hear all community concerns - respectfully and thoughtfully." She said the committee must reestablish a feeling in the community that they care, and recommended that they reinstate the practice of having a student as a non-voting member of the school committee, party to all discussions. She also suggested they hold meetings with teachers and school committee members for mutual understanding, "not," she said, "over problems that already exist."

Mrs. Ethel V. Howard drew first among the one-year candidates, with David R. Ahouse and Pasquale A. Marino succeeding her to the microphone.

Mrs. Howard suggested that student input start with the present Study Advisory Council, and be expanded. "It is important," she said, "to assess the impact of school committee policies on students." She also recommended putting students on temporary standing committees, and suggested the committee encourage further communication with the Andover Education Association representative who attends meetings.

The school committee has broken its link with the community this year, Marino said, and suggested his "Marino Plan" of four standing committees - long range planning, budget review, legislative and community relations - as one means of reestablishing communications.

On each committee, he said, would sit one teacher, one administrator, one school committeeman, one student, and one representative from the community at large.

Ahouse contended that additional involvement of students would help instill them with rational behavior. While teachers are not now involved to a large degree, he said, there are instances when their input would be beneficial.

He suggested that an informal approach might be most helpful now as a means of improving relations between the teachers and the school committee, and improving teacher morale.

One Change

"If you could make one change, what would it be?" was the first question off the floor at the end of the prepared speeches.

"Giving all parents the kind of educational climate that they consider their young would flourish best in," Ahern answered, while Townsend said his change would be "to make schools responsible to the needs of the child, not their parents, administration or school committee."

"I think a feeling of good will," said Mrs. Viehmann. "If we had it back we could do all the things we want to do."

Marino said he would try to make each of the elementary schools different, with each meeting the needs of all its children, while Ahouse said he would remove the "crisis mode of action" he claims the school committee has been using, and seek a period of consolidation.

Mrs. Howard said she would wish alternative structures that were made visible enough that parents would know what was happening to their children.

Open Concept

To the question "Do you believe in open concept and individualized instruction?" Townsend answered simply, "Yes I do. One hundred percent. Period."

"We've been deficient in open concept to the point of clouding how we've been doing for the past few years," Ahouse said. The point is neither to back three years or 15, but to move ahead."

Andover is a big enough system, Marino said, to accommodate all needs. If a structured family wants a structured classroom, it should have it, he said. If a more relaxed family wants a less structured classroom, it should have that too.

The new direction of emphasis on basics is far from perfect, Mrs. Howard said, "but it's much better." She added that she leaned toward the structured approach.

Conflict

Going into a committee meeting with an open mind, common sense, and common courtesy, were David Ahouse's suggestions of how to end the conflict between the school committee and the administration, while Marino suggested they read the Code of Ethics of the Massachusetts Association of School Committees before every meeting.

In answer to the tenure question, Ahouse asked, "How else do you protect teachers from politics?"

Mrs. Howard suggested a "sound evaluation mechanism" as a substitute, while Mrs. Viehmann suggested that the state representative try to get the tenure law raised from three years to five years. "Three years is much too short a time to know if you want to keep a teacher forever," she said.

tion provided the convenience of "one stop shopping" to townspeople, with adequate parking. He said he would own the shop with his wife, Ruth, and manage it himself, employing three full-time and four part-time people.

Hoffman also owns the Andover Colonial Center on North Main, and is vice-president of Ingalls Associates, an advertising firm in Boston.

Dalton said that Pizzano's is purely a family business, "and their only means of support."

If either Hoffman or Collins were granted the license, Dalton said, there would be three stores selling alcoholic beverages within 100 or 200 yards of each other.

He explained that a state law forbids small stores to ban together to buy in volume, so they can't compete with large, discount operations.

"If the Town of Andover allows such a store," he said, "the immediate effect would be disastrous to the Pizzanos." However, he said, the effect would be enormous on other stores in town as well.

Dalton also said during his presentation, that Pizzano had had "a couple of problems," selling to minors, several years ago.

"In this type of business," Dalton said, it is very difficult not to get into some type of trouble. Most liquor stores that have been in business for 10 years, he said, have accidentally sold to minors somewhere along the line.

Collins added that "in retrospect," youths didn't used to have the licenses and identification they have today, "with pictures and all."

It was much more difficult in that point of time," he said, "to avoid selling to minors. I'm sure one or two would slip by."

Selectman Alan French said that the board was not there to judge the economic viability of any situation.

A spokesman for McCracken Liquors, 4 Poor St., said that the discount store would be "very disastrous to those of us who own small shops. We're fighting them on four sides now," he said.

"There's only one license available this year," he said, "but if given to the large store, there will be four of five licenses up for grabs when they come due."

"You'll end up with one big supermarket and that's it," he said. "I know I can't survive with a cutrate in the area."

The Andover School Committee regularly meets the first and third Tuesdays of the month, usually at West Elementary School.

Planning Session Set For Homelands Festival

An organizational meeting of the Homelands Festival steering committee will be held at noon tomorrow at the YWCA, Lawrence St., Lawrence, according to festival chairwoman Dr. Nina Scarito.

All ethnic groups and individuals interested in participating in the festival, to be held April 3-6, are urged to attend.

"We're expanding this year's pageant to make it the largest in recent history," said Dr. Scarito. "That means more booths, more entertainment - and more participants."

According to Dr. Scarito, the festival has special meaning during this Bi-Centennial year.

"We want to demonstrate how all ethnic groups - from the Irish to the Ecuadorians - played a fundamental, necessary role in our history," she noted. "Not only is Lawrence an immigrant city, but the United States is an immigrant country."

The four-day affair, sponsored by the International Institute and the YWCA will offer a bazaar-like atmosphere crammed with old-world booths that feature foods, artifacts and demonstrations of native crafts, plus continuous on-stage live folk entertainment. Special features will include a continental cafe and a new attraction, foreign films for children.

Thursday and Friday, April 3 and 4, are devoted exclusively to children, with some 2100 students grades one through six already signed up to attend. Saturday and Sunday, April 5 and 6, are open to the general public.

Openings In Some Programs

There are still openings in some of the Recreation / Community Schools Department Programs scheduled to begin in March. Drawing for Junior and Senior High, will begin on Tuesday, March 4. Students will use a model for drawing and will gain experience in pen and ink, washes and conte. Also beginning Tuesday, March 4 is T.V. Workshop for grades 4-6. Youngsters will learn about script writing, producing, directing, and other aspects of television programming through the use of video tapes.

Crafts for Adults, which will start on March 3 has only a few remaining spaces. For those who have done some work in Stained Glass, the Intermediate class will begin on March 24. Spanish - Conversation 3, will begin on April 3 for those who have had Spanish 1 and 2 or a comparable background in conversational Spanish. The adult Sailing course will start on March 5 while the 4-6 grade Sailing program will begin on April 18.

For more information contact the Recreation / Community Schools Department, 36 Bartlett St.

The lodge at Recreation Park events through the 5 has a kitchen and fireplace and recreation/community schools may be reserved for social office.

Applications Open For Summer Jobs

Applications are now being taken for Recreation/Community Schools Department summer employment. Job Opportunities include summer playground staff, enrichment programs specialists, waterfront staff for Poms Pond and special education staff.

Applications may be obtained at the Recreation/Community Schools office, 36 Bartlett St. or at the Town Clerk's office at Town Hall. All applications must be returned to the Recreation/Community Schools office by March 14.

Homemaker Services To Be Available

The Merrimack Valley Home Care Center has signed a contract with the Homemaker-Home Health Aide Service of Lawrence General Hospital to provide homemaker services to people age sixty and over, living in the Greater Lawrence area. This contract has been approved and signed by the Commonwealth Secretary of Elder Affairs, Rose Claffey.

Homemaker service, which includes planning and preparation of meals, shopping, and light housekeeping, is the first of many services to be provided by Merrimack Valley Home Care. The agency will assist elderly persons to remain in their homes and communities. In March, the Home Care Center expects to begin offering chore services, which includes heavy housecleaning, yardwork, snow shoveling and minor home repairs. At the same time the Center will be able to provide housing and legal assistance.

Persons wishing more information about any of the Home Care services can contact the Merrimack Valley Home Care Center at 477 Essex St., Lawrence.

What Our Readers Say

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I am a teacher in the Andover Public School System. I am also a resident and taxpayer in the town. I have never written to the Townsman, although I have read with interest the letters of many others.

I am writing because many people feel that, programs and "concepts" aside, it is the individual teacher who is the crucial element in a successful educational system. Many of you remember a unique teacher with special fondness, probably because he or she took the time and interest to help you learn something about the world and yourself. Believe me when I say that the salaries we are paid will never make us rich. It is, rather, a different sort of wealth that we prize. It is the look of self-satisfaction on a child's face when he or she can finally say, "I understand!" It is perhaps the gratitude of a community which realizes that our primary purpose - and joy - is to enrich the lives of its children. It is, above all, respect. For when that respect is absent, and educators are robbed of their dignity, a system is truly polluted.

Many of us teach that with every privilege comes a responsibility, and that the privilege of living in a democracy entails the responsibility of making many choices and many trips to the polls.

As a teacher, I urge every citizen to vote on Monday, March 3. As a resident of the community, I urge you to vote for school committee candidates who accent the positive, while seeking to improve the negative, aspects of our system. I urge you to consider the following anonymous poem and to vote for candidates who are "builders."

Janis Baron
29 Sagamore Drive,
Andover, Mass.

"I watched them tearing a building down,
A gang of men in a busy town.
With a ho-heave-ho and a lusty yell,
They swung a beam and a side wall fell.
I asked the foreman, "Are these men skilled?"
He gave a laugh and said, "No, indeed!
Just unskilled labor is all I need.
I can easily wreck in a day or two
What builders have taken a year to do!"
And I thought of myself as I went my way,
Which of these roles have I tried to play?
Am I a builder who works with care,
Measuring life by a rule and square?
Am I shaping my deeds to a well-made plan,
Patiently doing the best I can?
Or am I a wrecker who walks the town
Content with the labor of tearing down?"

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

Last year the Townsman received criticism for its endorsements in the school committee election. It seemed to me that this criticism was justified on two grounds. The Townsman had given little coverage to the issues and to the investigation of the various candidates, and the endorsements were published when they couldn't be answered before election day.

This year the Townsman has apparently decided that the way to avoid criticism is to avoid playing any role in the election at all. The only "reporting" (sic) to be done is the running of the initial puff piece that each candidate writes when announcing for office.

So it seems presumptuous of you to editorialize on "informed voters" by extolling the virtues of candidates' nights. Out of the thousands of voters who go to the polls only several hundred will attend such functions. Certainly the best place for a neutral exposition of the issues and investigation of the qualifications of the candidates is through the pages of an alert newspaper. And by refusing to provide such coverage the Townsman insures that most of the voters will go to the polls without much information at their disposal.

A newspaper is part of the educational system in a community as much as the public schools. There has been a lot of discussion about achievement, grades, and accountability in the school system. If such measures were applied to the Townsman, you would earn an F on anyone's report card!

Richard Graber
22 Park Street
Andover

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

An open letter to Dr. Frank Griggs

For the past two and a half years at the very least, the townspeople of Andover have battled incessantly over matters of public education. The town has become polarized, and "conservative," "liberal," and "moderate" School Committee candidates have taken up the banner in succession to bail us out and lead us on to greater moments. As we approach another controversial school election, the Town of Andover is again in serious trouble, and there will be no surprises or panaceas on March 3. Oh, to be sure, some new faces will be elected, and the composition of the School Committee will change physically if not philosophically, but there will still remain one basic truth. The Town of Andover will be split about 50/50 on issues relating to "back to basics" and "individualized instruction," and the question is how we are going to cope with that reality. I submit we have done a poor job of coping with this matter in the past, and I wish to offer some specific suggestions for improvement.

First, the human wreckage of the past year should not be repeated. Andover has witnessed court battles among Committee members, an arbitration ruling against a Committee demotion decision, the loss of a competent Assistant Superintendent, and the loss of a competent Business Manager. To my view this record is shoddy, if not downright irresponsible. I exhort you to keep the new Committee to its elected task of charting policy, and leave the educational details to the Administration. Convene the new Committee with one charter -- to carry out the task of launching educational programs and reform with not only fiscal and educational responsibility, but with an element of human decency, dignity, and compassion which has been missing of late. School Committeepersons, for all their dedicated service, have the same

Comebacks Keep Undefeated Teams On Top

By Rick Harrison

A pair of near upsets to undefeated teams highlighted action this week in the Intermediate Division of the Andover Church Basketball League, as St. Augustine G and West Parish A both needed second-half comebacks to keep their records perfect.

The division turned the corner and headed into its second half with the top teams still St. Augustine G (10-0), West Parish A (9-0), St. Robert's C (9-0) and St. Robert's A (9-1).

Kelley Sparks Rally

St. Augustine B gave St. Augustine G all it could handle for more than two quarters, grabbing a 13-8 halftime lead and upping that to 15-8 when Tom Walsh swished a bucket moments after the second-half tap.

However, Ted Kelley and Mike Curley combined to pump through 11 unanswered points as the G-team regained a 19-15 advantage entering the final period. More offense from the same two players padded the cushion, as the unbeaten divisional leaders escaped with a hard-fought 25-18 victory.

Kelley emerged as game-high scorer with 17 points, while Curley closed with 6 markers and Mike Yuska added a second period basket.

Tom Walsh was the big gun for St. Augustine B, pouring in 12 points as he found the range at least once in every quarter. Paul Sirois swished 4 markers and Bill Caselden had a first stanza breakaway score to round out the charge for upset-minded St. Augustine B.

Dohertys Get Hot

Four-time defending champ West Parish A found itself in even deeper trouble against improved Ballard Vale United, which erased a 6-2 first quarter deficit to pull ahead 15-10 after three periods.

It marked the first time West A has trailed that late in a game all season.

However, with Chris Doherty dumping in 8 points and Steve Doherty adding 5 in the fourth quarter, West A utilized full-court pressure to outscore United 15-1 and pull away for a 26-15 triumph.

The victory stretched West Parish's two-season win streak to 19 straight, and was the 43rd win for the team in its last 44 league games.

Chris Doherty finished with 8 points, while Bruce Belbin netted 6, Steve Doherty 5, Bob Meier 4 points and Mike McDonald a solo bucket.

Lefty Bob Heidt contributed another standout game for United with 8 points. Carolyn Darling garnered 4 points and was tough off the backboards, and Todd McLeod pocketed 4 points to keep it interesting.

Russ Bird, Jay McLeod, Robbie Robinson and Bob Sutton

were additional Ballard Vale standouts.

Big Fourth Period

Although it didn't have to stage a furious late rally, St. Robert's C found St. Augustine F very pesky before erupting in the final period.

St. Robert's was ahead only 15-9 after three frames, but a 21-6 burst over the last six minutes enabled the winners to post a 36-15 decision.

John McNamara once again showed the way for St. Robert's C, hitting the strings for 20 points including nine each in the second and fourth quarters. Ira Gold cracked double figures with 10 points, while Todd Zimmerman flipped through 4 markers and Mike Damphousse canned a bucket.

Jamie Lebowitz and Rich Griffin were other C-team stalwarts.

St. Augustine F was propelled by Jack Horan with 7 points before fouling out, Tom Haskard 6 points before fouling out, and Joe Zemis who fired home a fourth period field goal.

Dave Barker and John Kramer also turned in hustling performances.

Defensive Tussle

St. Robert's A muscled past St. Robert's B (7-2) in a defensive 14-7 game which saw 21 infractions whistled against the losers and 11 fouls called on the victors.

Both teams scored three field goals in the game, but the A-crew added eight free throws while the B-team managed only one for the difference.

Dick Danner and Steve Lietch powered the St. Robert's A four-pronged offense with 4 points apiece, while Dan Saunders and Paul Tassanari were next in line with 3 points each. Alex Lanie and Craig Lebowitz helped guide the defensive effort.

Jeff Nicastro produced another prolific fourth period, notching all 5 of his markers in that quarter for the A-team. Howie Lebowitz bagged an early basket, while other leaders included Gregg Praetz, Neal Bradley, Tommy Daley, Ken Saliba and Wally Hines.

Seventh Victory

St. Augustine A returned to the winning track, boosting its record to a fine 7-3 following a 26-6 conquest of St. Augustine E.

Steve Smith sparked the A-club assault with 10 points, including six in the last quarter when things were really broken open. Fred Foote stuffed 7 points, Tom Fox dunked 6, Tim Bolduc banked in 2 markers and Dave Fluet contributed a charity toss for the winners.

Answering fire for St. Augustine E was provided by Kevin Donnelly with 4 points and Dave Robinson a single bucket. Also chipping in fine floor games were Tommy Galvin and Rick Winterson.

West B Prevails

West Parish B, plagued all season with losses by scant margins, finally won a tight game when it edged St. Augustine D by a 12-8 margin.

Last quarter baskets by Scott Belbin and Steve Johnson insured the victory as the game was close throughout.

Tim Plass returned from an injury to pace West B with 6 points, while Johnson garnered 4 altogether and Belbin 2 points. Other West B sparkplugs were Tom MacDonald, Scott Nolin, Alex deConstant, Jim Kimball and the Newton brothers - Paul and Mark.

E.J. Perry tossed in a brace of last period baskets for St. Augustine D to keep it tight. Roger St. Amand arched through 2 points, while foul shots were produced by Ed Trainor and Pat O'Connor.

Mike White and John Ingemi also played well in a losing cause.

Two In A Row

The surging Christ Church Crusaders rolled to their second straight victory, overpowering South Church 40-10.

Mark Rogers and Ken Taylor both soared into twin digits with 12 points apiece for the Crusaders. Russ Lewis converted some fancy driving lay-ups for 8 points, while Dave Marsden collected 4 points. Single baskets were popped through by Dave Menard and Mark Mitchell.

Todd Lockwood and Paul Brinkman keyed the Crusaders' defensive performance.

Bruce Barnhill had another fine game for South, notching all 10 of its points, while other hustlers were Pete Zlatev, Dave Oshan, Glen Barnes, Art Dunleavy and Carl Demrow.

Reaching .500

It was a fairly tough climb upward, but St. Robert's D made it to .500 this week, dumping Free Church 29-4 to square its ledger at 5-5.

Ben Bram bagged 14 points to pace the victors. Vinnie Keegan chipped in 6 markers, Marty Melia 4, Frank Byrne 4 and Jeff Lindquist swished a first quarter free throw.

Matt Slayton, Pete Byrne and Rich Adams pitched in solid all-around efforts for St. Robert's D.

Doug Awley fired through 3 points and Alan Green delivered a fourth quarter charity toss for Free. Scott Lindstrom, Al Patterson and Doug Goodman were others who spearheaded the Free attempt.

On The Beam

Baptist returned to the victory circle, using an 8-point third quarter as the springboard to a 13-9 decision over St. Augustine C.

Rizzo led the way with 5 points for Baptist (6-3), while Barry Bloom dropped through 4, Tom Stedman pocketed 2 points and Goodman canned a basket.

Jay Dilorio countered with 6 points for St. Augustine C, but the only other marksman was Chris Bedell who netted 3 points.

Schedule

Divisional play resumes next Monday night with nine games at the East Junior High and Doherty School gyms. Potentially interesting matchups have St. Augustine G facing St. Augustine A, and St. Robert's C against Ballard Vale United.

Hornets, Dana's Are Winners

Both Dana's and the Hornets emerged victors in closely fought contests during last Thursday's Men's League games. The Hornets held on to third place in the 19-32 Division by edging the Drivers 51-48. Dana's continue to surprise in the Over 33 Division. Last week's victim was the Embassy, losing to Dana's 50-48 and dropping to second place in the Gary Hairs League.

The Hornets win over the last placed Drivers was paced by Sam Washburn who tossed in 20 points. Dick Corry and Lou Jones contributed 8 apiece for the winners. The Drivers, keeping the game close throughout, received a fine effort from Pete Mullet with 25 points followed by John Bovenzi with 14.

The Panthers extended their win streak to 11 straight by crushing the No-Names 54-38. High scoring Vin Doherty paced the Panthers' attack with 22 points. Frank Monette with 9 and Alan O'Reilly with 8 aided the victors. The No-Names' scoring machine just couldn't get started. However, Pete Lafond's 14 bested No-Names scorers.

The Dudes remained within reach of the league leading Panthers as they were handed a forfeit win by Doherty's.

Dana's, coming on strong the last few games surprised Embassy 50-48. The loss dropped Embassy to second place in the Over 33 Division. Dana's attack was well balanced the consisted of Les Gilbert's 13, Dennis Hughes 12, Tom Roberts 12 and Joe Carbone 11. Sharp-shooter Wally Gardner tallied 22 points for the losers while high scoring Don Strong was held to 14 by the tight Dana's defense.

The Sweepers, taking advantage of the Embassy loss, regained first place honors by coasting to a 46-34 win over the Pick-Ups. Jack Dean with 14 points and Bill Coon with 11 paced the winners. The Pick-Ups' Gary Nevers tossed in 8 while Bob Cratty and Alan Maxwell added 7 apiece. The Strobes were handed a forfeit victory by the Warriors.

All teams are reminded that games originally scheduled for next Thursday, Feb. 27, have been rescheduled for Saturday afternoon, March 1, at the West Junior High gym. Consult team captains for game time.

St. Augustine Braves Take Hockette Title

Miniature Champs

The St. Augustine Braves girls floor hockey team won the Miniature Hockettes championship last week by beating the Shawsheen Roadrunners, 8-3.

At the end of the first period the Braves were trailing the Roadrunners 2-1, but St. Augustines came back with six quick goals in the second period, only letting up one more goal throughout the game.

It wasn't so much the lack of fire power on Shawsheen's part but rather the excellent goaltending performance by St. Augustine's Elaine Scanlon, who stopped 23 shots from crossing the line.

Single goals for the Braves were scored by Marguerite Katis, Elizabeth DeLucia and Ellinor Buck, and Kathy Wesson with 5, upped her total for the season to 22. Jane Campbell put two in the net for Shawsheen, while Kelly Horan added one.

Both teams went into the game with one loss. St. Augustines had bowed to South 43, when Debbie Prussman from South scoring with only nine seconds to play.

Shawsheen lost only to the Sanborn Rainbows 5-1.

Certificates and trophies will be awarded at the final ceremonies to be held at the Recreation Park lodge.

W. Parish Regulars Return

The 7th and 8th graders of the West Parish Senior Boys Basketball team, coached by Frank Monette, got a boost this past week as Jim Arnold and Tom Curtin returned to the lineup after missing several games.

The West team had been struggling to get into the top four teams in the standings of the Lawrence Jewish Community Center League, and they climbed into fourth place by defeating St. Joseph's of Lowell 40-30 and League leading North Suburban YMCA of Woburn 42-40.

In the St. Joseph's game Tom Curtin fired in 15 points and center Jim Arnold stuffed 14 points as Bill Hall chipped in with 7 points, and Mike Donahue scored 4 points. Chris Carlson and Jeff Rosen handed out most of the assists.

In the big game with the North Suburban YMCA Woburn team (who went into the game with a 10-1 record) Coach Monette had his team go into a stall in the first half, because his three top players had not arrived at the game. The stall worked as the West Parish team were down only 16-11 at the half. The three ball players arrived for the start of the second half and West Parish went on to outscore the League Leaders 31-24 in the second half. In the first half of the game Steve Neyman scored 4 crucial points as did Dave Nardone and 3 points by Bill Hall. Mike Donahue came down with some big rebounds and Peter Newton controlled the tempo for the stall.

In the second half, Dave Nardone continued with his fine offensive play scoring 13 more points giving him a game high of 17 points, and several offensive rebounds.

The Scarlet Knight hockey team finished with a 10-8-2 record for the year, the best season since hockey began at North Andover two years ago. They defeated Ipswich 6-2 at Merrimack College on Saturday.

The Knights picked up the only goal of the first period, with Dave Diminico scoring from Bill McMahon and Mark Esposito, but North Andover pushed it up to 4-0 in the second period. Mike Driscoll tallied from Dan Noone and McMahon to start things off, and Esposito scored with John Zahoruiko assisting. Mike Cavallaro added an unassisted goal.

Diminico scored again in the final frame with assists from Esposito and Joe Beninato, and Esposito added the final tally with the assists going to Diminico and Beninato.

On Wednesday, Feb. 19, Lynnfield shut out the Knights 3-0 at Merrimack. The undefeated Pioneers had 35 shots on net as Pete Caron had an excellent game turning back 32. Forwards Bob Donahue and Marty Driscoll also played well for the Knights.

The N.A. skaters finished with 22 points behind Lynnfield, Amesbury, Masconomet, North Reading and Newburyport in the C.A.L. They won a forfeit game over Rockport for their 10th win, probably defeating them anyway.

Next season the Knights should be league playoff material.

Boosters List 48 Winners

Forty-eight winners have been named in the fund-raising drive conducted by the Andover Boosters to help purchase special awards for the Andover High State Champion football team players.

Hal Wennik, chairman of the fund-raising program, says the prizes were the gifts of Andover merchants, "who have supported the Boosters for nearly 30 years - and without whom there probably wouldn't be any Booster club."

Andover winners include: Carol Marisola, Bertha Wormwood, Mrs. Normile, Mr. Peakes, Robert MacMackin, Elinor McLeod, Danny Morreo, Mike Wilson, Joseph Ellis, Bob French, D. Antoni, Rose Saliba, Ben H. Waters, D. Reming, George Franz, Tom Eldred, Lou Lyman.

Gerry Znamierowski, Miss Gibson, Mrs. Johanson, Mr.

O'Neil, Tom Henderson, M. McCormick, Christine Maricco, Barry Horewicz, M. Stamis, Richard Gould, Lou Tallini, Dianne Tallini, Mr. Patillo, Jim White, Mrs. Looney, Jim Aiello, M. Beaver and D. Callahan.

Out-of-towners winning awards include R.A. Harmon, Lawrence; M.G. Hanlon, Marblehead; Mr. Perley, Georgetown; Eloise Massicotte, North Andover; Bob Feldman, Medford; Carmen Iannuccille, Methuen; Robert Lord, North Reading; Mildred Mazian, Lowell; Gary Inman, Wilmington; Pat Cambrida, Haverhill; R. Hossey, North Andover; Verd McCarthy, Peabody; Bill Flynn, Wakefield. Wennik said the fund-raising effort is still in effect.

The Andover Historic Commission meets the third Monday of the month, at Memorial Hall Library.

Traveling Bantams Pick Up Four

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Bantam 'A' traveling hockey team returned from its annual week-long junket to Canada last Sunday afternoon, a little bit older, a little more educated and four victories richer than when they left.

Coach Dick Neal's sextet had trouble with the opposition in Toronto, dropping both games played, but they warmed up to the surroundings in Oshawa and swept all three contests held there.

Enroute home the locals stopped over in St. Alban's Vt., picking up their fourth victory of the trip before returning home.

In tuning up for the Canadian junket, Andover tied Manchester, N.H. (4-4) before whipping Portsmouth, N.H. (4-2) and Concord, N.H. (3-0) the week prior to the journey northward.

All of which means Andover heads into its next game this weekend riding a four-game victory streak and sporting a 12-9-3 overall record.

Tough Start, 7-4

Andover began its Canadian series by dropping a 7-4 decision to North Toronto at Memorial Arena.

"The boys were 'scared' about playing Canadian boys before the game started," commented Neal, "and it took them until the third period to really get going."

By then it was too late, however, as North Toronto was atop a 7-1 lead.

The host team wasted little time grabbing a 1-0 advantage, beating Andover goalie Dave Hill just 52 seconds after the opening faceoff.

Capt. Dave Farrell tied it 1-1 at 6:31 of the 20-minute first period, taking a pass from Paul Farnham and depositing a shorthanded goal while teammate Steve Curtis was in the penalty box.

North Toronto regained a 2-1 edge late in the first stanza, added two unanswered goals in the middle session, and built the lead to 7-1 with six minutes left to play before Andover caught fire.

Len Foote pumped home consecutive goals 49 seconds apart, and finally with 37 seconds to play Len Driscoll netted a powerplay goal from Farrell.

John Sagaser assisted on both of Foote's red-lighters, while defenseman Brian Bresnahan helped out once.

Dave Hill wound up sharing the goalie chores equally with Todd Bateson, a pre-arranged maneuver that had both boys in net for 30 minutes.

Forest Hill, 4-2

Andover pocketed the first and last goals during its second game, but unfortunately host Forest Hill tucked home four in-between to chalk up a 4-2 decision in the final Toronto game.

"It really wasn't a strong Toronto team. We just played poorly," admitted Neal.

The locals were without the services of tall defenseman Paul

Keefe, who suffered an ankle injury during a practice session that same morning, and Len Foote who sustained a shoulder injury during the game and was lost. Both boys were taken to the local hospital as a precautionary measure, and X-Rays proved negative on both.

Don St. Jean put Andover on the board at 15:56 of the first period, slamming in a third rebound after linemates Paul Farnham and Len Driscoll had cracks at the Forest Hill goalie.

The host team tied it with 57 seconds to go in the period, then scored once in the second frame and registered two more before Dave Farrell notched his 14th lamplighter with only 2:22 left. Jeff Hudgins and Farnham assisted.

Dave Hill went the route in goal.

Conquering Oshawa, 6-4

The locals received their first taste of victory on foreign ice, as Foote and Keefe were back in action for a 6-4 triumph over the Oshawa Minor Bantams at Children's Arena.

Foote dissipated any concern about his shoulder when he drilled home the opening goal at 9:07 of the first period. Linemates Farrell and John Sagaser were credited with set-ups.

Mike Derby entered the offensive act for the first time this season at 16:22, making it 2-0 by blasting in a powerplay slapshot from the point. Foote and Farrell garnered the helpers.

Andover again made use of the powerplay in the second canto, grabbing a 3-0 advantage when Don St. Jean converted after passes from Paul Farnham and Len Driscoll.

Dave Hill gave way in goal to Todd Bateson for the third period, and Todd became embroiled in a shoot-out as seven goals were scored thereafter.

Quickies by Dave Farrell and Len Foote within the first 71 seconds of the third stanza jack-ked the lead up to 5-0. Oshawa broke the shutout at 7:54, but Driscoll countered 20 seconds later for a 6-1 Andover spread.

The Oshawa Minor Bantams gave Andover several anxious

Bowling Winners Named

The Recreation/Community Schools Department's winter vacation bowling tournament held at Andover Lanes attracted 105 residents, vying for high single and high triple honors in each of the six age divisions. Bowlers were permitted to bowl as many strings as they wanted over a period of four days. High single and high triple scores were submitted at the end of the four days.

The most hotly contested division was the boys 9-12 group with a field of 49 competing. Charles Sirois claimed the high single trophy with a score of 104, while Darrell Porter rolled a 256 to take high triple honors in the division.

High single winners for the tournament and their scores in each division were:

Girls: 6-8 Kris Loranger, 57; 9-12 Rebecca Erban, 92; 13-15 Chris Lawson, 102.

Boys: 6-8 Brett Yannalfo, 65; 9-12 Mike MacDonald, 110; 13-15 Charles Sirois, 104.

High triple winners and their scores were:

Girls: 6-8 Kathy Kimball 179; 9-12 Elizabeth Bainbridge, 238; 13-15 Luan Giannone, 274.

Boys: 6-8 Dan Bovenzi, 189; 9-12 Rob Johnson, 286; 13-15 Darrell Porter, 256.

moments near the end, for three late red-lighters in the last eight minutes for final.

Foote added a pair of assists while re-Phil Weeks, John Sagaser and Farrell garnered solo assists.

Oshawa Majors, 6-1. Andover started operating all cylinders as the contest improved, following Farrell's two goal lead to romp over the Oshawa Bantams at the North Arena.

Len Driscoll produced a score of the first 15 period, taking a pass from Farrell and beating the Major goaltender.

Brian Bresnahan's second lighter of the campaign assisted shot from the powerplay, zipped the 2-0 before Paul Farnham on another powerplay two minutes later at 6:22 middle frame. Bresnahan assisted on the latter goal.

After Oshawa's spoils, Hill's shutout bid at 9:43 third period with a powerplay connection, poured it on when Don St. Jean stuffed home his sixth before Capt. Farrell re-tied twice in less than five minutes for the 6-1 bulge.

Len Foote assisted twice in the final period, while single goals were passed out by Paul Farnham and Bresnahan again.

"This was a strong team, but we beat them with a good all-around effort. I had an exceptionally fine goal," lauded Neal.

moments near the end, striking for three late red-lighters in the last eight minutes for the 6-4 final.

Footo added a pair of third period assists while rear-guard Phil Weeks, John Sagaser and Farrell garnered solo aids.

Oshawa Majors, 6-1

Andover started operating on all cylinders as the competition improved, following Dave Farrell's two goal lead to a 6-1 romp over the Oshawa Major Bantams at the North Oshawa Arena.

Len Driscoll produced the only score of the first 15-minute period, taking a pass from Farrell and beating the Oshawa Major goaltender.

Brian Bresnahan's second red-lighter of the campaign, as unassisted shot from the point during a powerplay, zipped the lead to 2-0 before Paul Farnham tacked on another powerplay marker two minutes later at 6:27 of the middle frame. Bresnahan assisted on the latter goal.

After Oshawa's spoiled Dave Hill's shutout bid at 9:42 of the third period with its own powerplay connection, Andover poured it on when Don St. Jean stuffed home his sixth goal before Capt. Farrell registered twice in less than five minutes for the 6-1 bulge.

Len Footo assisted twice in the final period, while single helpers were passed out by Paul Keefe, Paul Farnham and Bresnahan once again.

"This was a strong Oshawa team, but we beat them with a good all-around effort. Dave Hill had an exceptionally fine game in goal," lauded Neal.

Sweeping Oshawa, 6-4

Barely 12½ hours after posting the victory over the Oshawa Major Bantams, who were sponsored by the ever-popular mother's Pizza. Andover duplicated the feat against another Oshawa Major Bantam crew sponsored by "Mr. Antenna."

The game started at 7:30 a.m., which may explain the scoreless first period, but Len Footo finally broke the 0-0 duel with a powerplay goal at 6:52 of the second frame.

Footo made it 2-0 eight minutes later, and Len Driscoll's 13th seasonal lamplighter with 56 seconds to play in the period gave the locals a three goal cushion.

Oshawa found the range twice within 33 seconds early in the finale, but Paul Farnham countered with his 12th and 13th for a more comfortable 5-2 Andover spread. Farnham's second effort was a beautiful unassisted, short-handed score.

Not to be quelled so easily, Oshawa rattled the Children's Arena nets twice more to cut the deficit to 5-4 with 2:12 to go. Don St. Jean followed with an insurance tally at 18:50, however, and the visitors were home free.

Dave Farrell and Driscoll chalked up two assists apiece in the game, and single helpers were collected by Mike Derby, John Sagaser, Farnham and St.

Jean.

Again it was an excellent effort by our team and by Hill in goal," stressed Neal.

The triple victory in Oshawa kept Andover's perfect record intact, as the locals have never lost in that town during the seven years they have played there.

St. Alban's Falls, 3-2

After trimming Oshawa Saturday morning, Andover departed for home with a Saturday night stop in Burlington, Vt. to view the Bowdoin University of Vermont college hockey game.

The next morning the kids had just enough zip remaining to defeat the St. Alban's Bantams, 3-2.

Len Footo pocketed the first of his two goals at 1:19 of the opening session, and then at 9:02 John Sagaser's fifth marker made it 2-0.

The second period passed in scoreless fashion, but a powerplay goal by St. Alban's at 4:30 of the finale ruined Todd Bateson's shutout bid.

Footo came through with the eventual game-winner, his 24th of the season and eighth on the trip, at 8:58 before St. Alban's notched a second powerplay goal with Jeff Hudgins in the box at 10:59.

"The team was very tired throughout this one," conceded Neal. And well it might be!

Bresnahan Hurt

Defenseman Brian Bresnahan was rammed into the boards during the St. Alban's contest, and had to be held over at the hospital there because of a slight collapsed lung.

However, Brian returned home Monday after sustaining a 15 per cent tissue tear of the lung. He is (Continued on Page 19)

Knights Face Winthrop-Winthrop-Pentucket Winner

THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 27, 1975

By Bill Lafond

The Scarlet Knight Basketball Five start Friday night to defend their Division II State Crown, having drawn a bye to the quarter finals. They will be playing the winner of the Winthrop-Pentucket game (played Wednesday night at Andover) at the Beverly High School Fieldhouse (off route 128) in a 7 p.m. tap-off.

The N.A. hoopsters drew the top-seeded spot in the Div. II-North tourney with a 20-1 record, thus marking the second straight year they have drawn number one. Pentucket and Winthrop drew eight and nine respectively with 12-7 marks. Following the Knights in the seedings were (2) Gr. Lawrence Regional 20-1, drawing a bye (3) Lawrence 17-3, also drawing a bye (4) Hamilton-Wenham 16-3 (5) Lynnfield 14-4 (6) Lynn Tech 14-5 (7) Lynn Classical 14-6 (8) Pentucket (9) Winthrop (10) Masconomet 13-8 (11) North Reading 12-8 (12) Rindge Tech 12-8 and (13) Wayland 12-8. The big thing is that the Greater Lawrence teams finished one, two and three in the rankings.

The Winthrop-Pentucket game was played at Andover last night. If the Vikings of Winthrop won, the Knights would be facing a team from the N.E. Conference which finished in fifth place with an 11-7 league mark. Last season N.A. started their tourney trek also against Winthrop in the semi-finals at Belmont and defeated them with a powerful defense 46-29. Winthrop is led by long time successful Coach Henry McCarthy, and had to win six out of their last seven games in order to qualify for state play. The Vikings top gun is Bob Lundberg, averaging 13 points a game and with him in the attack is Mike Demetriou and George Kalogeris. The Vikings weren't expected to be much of a power this season, losing their starting five and top six players to graduation, but Coach McCarthy isn't to be denied of post-season play. Winthrop may be the best bet to face the Knights on Friday night at Beverly in the quarter final round.

The Sachems of Pentucket are kind of a surprise team this season, under a new coach in Dan McLaughlin. They finished in a third place tie in the C.A.L. West Division, seven games behind the Knights, with Masconomet at 11-7. Usually Pentucket is under the .500 mark, but this season they made post-season play. They can match the Knights up front with good size in Bob Gregory (6'4" center), Barry Mansell (6'2" forward) and Tim Shorey (6'3" forward), and are a fast-breaking club, led by play-maker Bob Carey. As a team the Sachems are averaging 70 points per game. North Andover played this team twice during the season, at home and at West Newbury, providing wins of 72-50 and 57-41, but Pentucket is an improved quintet winning five out of their last six games.

If the Knights win on Friday night they will enter the semi-final round of Division II North and could very well face Lawrence. On Friday night Lawrence will play the winner of the North Reading-Lynn Tech game at Framingham North High, and if they win, along with the Knights, they will play it out in the semi-final round, with the place and time to be named later. The finals won't be played at the Boston Garden this year with the time and place for that being announced later.

The Knights are rated number one also in Div. II-North and picked to win the tourney for the second straight year. Following them in the rankings are Hamilton-Wenham, Lawrence, Rindge Tech and Lynn Classical, in that order. Rindge Tech is the dark horse and should be in the finals in their bracket and could face the Knights in the finals. They only finished with a 12-8 record, but they are in the tough Suburban League.

East-West Games Delayed

The C.A.L. title game between the Knights and Hamilton-Wenham originally scheduled for last Saturday night had to be rescheduled for sometime between the state sectional tourney and the state playoffs.

It was postponed due to a Mass. School Principal's Association rule which says a school in session can play no more than two games a week and a school out of session can play no more than three games in a week. Both teams would have violated the rule. North Andover was in session and had already played two games while Hamilton was not in session and had played three games.

The game was scheduled for Peabody High School with the J.V. Knights playing Hamilton's J.V.s in the prelim for the Junior title, followed at approximately 8:30 with the big game. It was announced last Thursday at noon that both teams would be breaking the rule if the game went through. The C.A.L. title game is set for an approximate date of Saturday March 8, the night that the all-star game was originally planned.

expected to be back in action, soon, as the injury is not serious.

In addition to the six games on the trip, the Andover team was treated to tours of Niagara Falls, the Hockey Hall of Fame, the Ontario Science Center and the Toronto City Hall at which time they were introduced to the city council members.

Besides the Bowdoin-Vermont game, the Andover team also witnessed a Provincial Junior 'A' playoff game in Aurora, Ontario Wednesday night.

The annual stop was also made at the Bloorview Children's Hospital in Toronto, where the Andover players met and talked with the patients.

While in Oshawa and St. Alban's the Andover kids stayed in the homes of host team players.

Portsmouth, 5-2

A pair of goals apiece from Len Foote and Don St. Jean sparked Andover past Portsmouth, N.H. prior to the Canadian trip, as the locals swept the home-and-home series with a 5-2 triumph at the Great Bay Arena.

Portsmouth grabbed a 1-0 first period lead, but Paul Farnham retaliated at 9:01 of the second stanza with a shorthanded goal.

"Dave Farrell carried down the right side deep into their zone," recalled Neal. "He was tripped up, but recovered and circled the net to hit Farnham out front for a chip shot to the upper left corner."

Portsmouth jammed a second rebound through Dave Hill's pads five seconds later during the same powerplay situation, but St. Jean squared matters 2-2 at 11:34 with a 15-footer through a screen during an Andover line change. John Sagser got the assist.

St. Jean produced the clincher at 4:54 after some crisp passing among he, Farnham and Driscoll.

Foote followed with a brace of unassisted goals. On the first he faked his way past two defenders, cut across the goalmouth and flicked a backhand just under the crossbar. The second was a breakaway from his own blue line, culminating with a short wrister through the goalie's legs. Bateson toiled the first period in goal and Hill the last two.

Concord Crumbles, 3-0

Andover boosted its home ice (Phillips Academy and Merrimack College) record to a flashy 6-2-2 by blanking Concord 3-0 at PA.

"We played our best game of the season against a very strong team," said Neal at the time.

"Dave Hill was in goal all game and it was our first shutout of the season," continued the coach. "We had only three defensemen - Paul Keefe, Brian Bresnahan and Phil Weeks - and each played an outstanding game along with Dave Farrell who dropped back on defense a few times when Weeks was injured slightly in the third period. Hill made a number of big saves."

Len Foote opened the scoring on the eve of the Canadian trip, beating the Concord goaltender to the far upper corner right off the game-opening draw. The lamp was lit at 0:13.

It stayed that way until 2:21 of the second stanza, when Foote connected again on a five-footer following a fine corner passout by linemate John Sagser.

Jeff Redding's fourth seasonal goal added extra insurance at 8:28 of the same period. Steve Curtis passed out from behind the net to Redding in the slot, and Jeff snapped home a 12-footer.

The fast, clean game was marred by only four minor penalties.

Schedule

The Oshawa Bantams were supposed to return Andover's visit for three games March 7-9, but the tilts had to be cancelled because of a penalty imposed on Oshawa for a problem in an earlier tournament.

Oshawa will, however, still send their Pee Wees to play the Andover Pee Wees as scheduled during that time.

Meanwhile, the Andover Bantams return to action this Saturday night at 7 p.m., hosting the Brunswick Maine Bantams whom they tied 3-3 earlier in the season. The game will be played at Phillips-Academy.

Next Wednesday, March 5, Andover travels to the Skate 3 rink in Tyngsboro for a match against the Southern New Hampshire Bantams (9 p.m.), and on March 8 the Methuen Bantams will invade Phillips for a 6 p.m. clash.

The local Bantam 'A' squad has now been outscored by a slim 91-88 margin in its 24 games to date.

Currier, Ives Prints At Gallery

The Addison Gallery of American Art, Phillips Academy, Andover, announces a special exhibition of Currier and Ives prints and music covers from the 19th century. The exhibition provides a remarkable glimpse into America's past and documents the early development of lithography in this country.

The exhibition will continue through March 30.

Bob Says,

There's a whole new brand of copiers on the Greater Andover Market today. It comprises copiers of every type and style. And it may be distinguished from other copiers by a label or sticker that says "Reconditioned by Copilabs, Inc." Of course, this "brand" is also distinguishable by reliable operation, fine copy quality, and an interior and exterior appearance surpassed only by new equipment.

It's easy for copier companies to rip off reconditioning or overhaul customers. A little spray cleaner, a fresh charge of toner, and most copiers could fool the unwary. That's why it's nice to have a company like Copilabs. When we recondition a copier it gets disassembled, cleaned, dusted, wiped, degreased, and deglazed. We then will lubricate, reassemble, adjust, test mechanically and electronically, and set the copier as close to original factory specs as possible. Parts are replaced as needed, too. We don't know any other way to do it right.

Do you wish to keep the copier you've got? Call us. Your old copier after a Copilabs reconditioning will be an entirely different machine.

W. Parish Ends Perfect League Season

The West Parish intermediate basketball team completed a perfect season in the Lawrence Jewish Community Center Biddy Basketball League this past week, trouncing second place St. Mary's of Lawrence 37-2.

The victory for West Parish, which clinched the league championship several weeks ago, boosted its final regular-season record to 15-0. Overall the team now sports a 28-2 ledger.

Chris Doherty swished a pair of early free throws to start West rolling against St. Mary's, and then solo buckets by Ted Kelley, Tim Plass and Mike Sherman lifted the lead to 8-0 after one quarter.

Four more points by Doherty, a basket by Bob Heidt and Dick Kelley's charity toss boosted the difference to 15-2 by halftime.

Sherman and Doherty delivered third period field goals, while Ted Kelley canned a free throw, and West was atop a 20-2 edge after three stanzas.

Bob Heidt slipped in six points and Dick Kelley four to spark a 17-point explosion in the final session.

Chris Doherty hit double figures for the 12th time, popping in 10 points to wrap up the individual league scoring title with 157 markers.

Bob Heidt finished the game with 8 points, Ted Kelley 6, Dick Kelley 5, Mike Sherman 4 and Tim Plass had 4 points.

Tom Beaumier chipped in an aggressive floor game with numerous steals and rebounds, while Plass and Ted Kelley were also strong off the boards for the champs.

Last night the West Parish team faced tough St. Michael's of North Andover in the preliminary to the Merrimack College basketball game at that school's Volpe Complex.

Ski Race Results

The Andover Recreation / Community Schools Department's first winter vacation ski race was held Thursday, Feb. 20, at the Merrimack Valley Ski Area.

More than 20 skiers participated in the race competing for trophies and ribbons. Top place finishers in the 8 and under division whose place was determined by a combined time total of two runs were:

Boys: 1, Robbie Carpentier; 2, Brian Cronin; 3, Jay Carpentier.

Girls: 1, Stacey Hostetter; 2, Tracey Hostetter; 3, Sally White.

Top place finishers in the 9-11 and 12-14 age division whose places were determined by the best time of two runs were:

Boys, 9-11: 1, Sean Trombley and 2, Dan Kimball.

Girls, 9-11: 1, Rebecca Gardner; 2, Jana Caldwell; 3, Amy Hostetter.

Boys, 12-14: 1, Richard Marciano; 2, Peter Price; 3, Tim White.

Girls, 12-14: 1, Julie Retelle.

Although Julie Retelle was the only entrant in the older girls division, her trophy was well deserved as she turned in the fastest time of the day.

Cape Cod Tour Nets Four Wins

The Andover West Parish Senior Boys Basketball team, coached by Frank Monette, recently concluded a tour to Cape Cod winning four out of six games. Assisting coach Monette on the trip were Sam Washburn, Richard Hayman and Frank Orlando.

Several boys on the junior high and freshman teams also were invited to participate on the trip. There was a 7th and 8th grade game and a 9th and 10th grade game at each stop. Those boys participating on the trip were 7th and 8th graders: Bill Hall, Bob Meier, Mike Donahue, Ben Bram, Eddie Collins, Jim Arnold and Todd Orlando; and 9th and 10th graders: Chris Elliott, Mark Paro, Andy Campbell, Randy Hayman, Dave Callaghan, Bob Kramer, Ricky Collins, Steve Serley, Barry Pulsford, Greg Nicastro, Jim Hamilton and Mark Davey.

The first game was played in Middleboro as the 8th graders topped the Middleboro 8th graders 38-12 with Eddie Collins tossing in 15 points, Todd Orlando 9, Jim Arnold 8, Bill Hall 4, and Ben Bram 2 points. The 9th graders lost 63-53 as Rick Collins led the team with 15 points, followed by Steve Serley 9, Mark Davey 8, Barry Pulsford and Bob Kramer 6, Andy Campbell 5, Chris Elliott and Greg Nicastro 2 points each.

The second game was played on Nantucket Island as the West 8th graders won again 69-34. Eddie Collins bombed in 28 points, Jim Arnold 19, Todd Orlando 12, Bill Hall and Mike Donahue 4 each, and Ben Bram and Bob Meier 2 points each. The 9th graders lost 54-37 as Steve Serley swished 12 points, Dave Callaghan, Bob Kramer and Barry Pulsford each tossed in 6 points and Andy Campbell, Rick Collins and Jim Hamilton each scored a bucket.

The third game was played on Martha's Vineyard and the 8th graders kept their record perfect as they topped a tough Vineyard Haven 8th grade team 54-48. Eddie Collins again led West Parish with 26 points, as Jim Arnold hooked in 14, Todd Orlando 10, and Bill Hall 2 points. The 9th graders were defeated 73-46 as Mark Davey tossed in 18 points. The final game of the trip was played in East Sandwich. The 8th graders did not have a game but the 9th graders won their game 57-47 as Mark Davey swished in 21 points followed by Steve Serley 9 points, Rick Collins 8, Dave Callaghan 6, Andy Campbell and Jim Hamilton 4 points each, Barry Pulsford and Bob Kramer 2 points each, Chris Elliott and Greg Nicastro 1 point each.

All the tensions were not spent on the games, some of the anxious moments developed when it was found out that four boys were stranded on Nantucket Island on the second day of the trip, but all was restored and some wonderful memories of a real fun trip.

The Election

Andover voters will be going to the polls Monday with an avid eye on the school committee race.

Due to the current makeup of the committee, which has a traditionalist, or conservative majority, the election on Monday could provide the necessary lure to the voters.

The selectman's race, where two candidates seek the one three-year term, has been lackluster to date.

The race involves the incumbent, Alan F. French, who initially said he would not seek re-election, then changed his mind, and George W. Connors, Jr.

As for the school committee, the race seems to center on labels.

As mentioned in this space previously, the liberal vs. the conservative tags seem to have been shed this year in favor of the more popular moderate image.

The tumult of the past year in school committee proceedings has subsided to some degree, but the ingredients remain for continued divisiveness, within the current makeup of the board.

It seems imperative then, that Monday, the voters should choose at least one candidate who has displayed a knowledge of educational procedures, has feel for what Andover wants in the way of education, and has an open mind to listen to another side.

A person with the ability to not only communicate but listen as well, could improve the educational climate and bring about some semblance of order to school committee proceedings.

That person, in our opinion, is Mrs. Elaine Viehmann, seeking the three year term.

The Salary

In the past few years, we have had some editorial comments concerning the salary of the superintendent of schools, and this year shall be no different, except for the tone.

In the past we have been somewhat critical of the administrative salary structure of the school department.

Our comments this year are not related to the specifics of the salary itself, but more toward the action of the school committee a week ago.

A majority of the committee voted to grant Supt. of Schools Kenneth R. Seifert an increase of $887.

George F. Olesen and John F. Lyons opposed the increase on varying grounds.

Chairman Griggs, in his comments concerning his approval of the increase noted that Dr. Seifert, had "stopped fighting" with the committee and had been working with the board since the fall.

What seems to be an overriding factor with regard to the superintendent, is that he is being blamed for all the ills of the Andover system.

Seifert's position in the Andover system was created by a school committee which brought him here for a specific purpose, and until a few years ago, specifically last year, the votes on the school committee were to continue the mandate given him when he was hired.

The administrator is now on tenure, and it is safe to say that only through such protection is he still at the head of the Andover school system today, when the school board makeup is examined.

Quite possibly, as Mr. Olesen and Mr. Lyons suggested, Seifert was somewhat reluctant to make changes in the system as initially proposed after the election last March.

But he has attempted to work with a committee which is not sympathetic to all of his views.

As an administrator he must follow the dictates of the school committee, and Dr. Seifert appears to be following the orders to date.

If there was insubordination, then some of the remarks would seem justified, but to use a salary issue as a soapbox for political frustration or personal attacks, is unwarranted.

Down the Years with The Townsman

75 Years Ago - February, 1900

The steamer New England which sailed from Boston recently with several local people aboard touched at Malta yesterday where they were royally received by J.H. Grout, consul, whose brother is an Andover resident.

A George Washington sociable was held at Christ church parish house with seven of those present dressed in handsome colonial attire. Mrs. Francis H. Johnson and Mrs. H.L. Tyler entertained with delightful readings.

Assistant Postmaster George T. Abbott is confined to his home with rheumatism in his left foot.

A four horsepower gasoline engine has been put in J.W. Barnard and Sons shoe factory on Barnard St. It will be used to run the machinery in the heeling room.

Last Sunday's storm prevented the pulpit exchange of West Parish congregational church and the Andover Baptist Church. Unless another blizzard interferes, Rev. Mr. Andrews will preach at the Baptist church Sunday at 10:30 a.m.

50 Years Ago - February, 1925

A lively election is expected Monday with Herbert Lyle contesting Andrew McTernan for selectman, and six candidates seeking the tree warden post.

There will be no referendum question on the granting of liquor licenses on the ballot this year. Gov. Fuller signed a bill eliminating the necessity of such a vote.

Walter E. Colby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Colby, 58 Salem St., editor of Physical Culture magazine, gave a talk from Gimbel Brothers in New York, over station WGBS, last Friday night.

Philip Foster has drawn up a tentative plan for development of the Playstead and will present it to town meeting. The planning is being done under the direction of the Board of Public Works.

A beautiful costume party under the auspices of the Andover Historical Society was held in town hall Saturday night as part of the annual George Washington Birthday observance.

25 Years Ago - February, 1950

An article has been inserted in the warrant to create a bylaw which would allow prevention of open burning in town. Any creation of an abundance of gray or black smoke would be considered a nuisance.

A special town meeting will be held within the regular town meeting to act on appropriation of funds to purchase a new centrifugal pump for the pumping station. The present machinery broke down this past week and is only temporarily repaired.

Pupils at the Central school were given a couple of days off this week when the stoker broke down and the coldness of the buildings made it advisable to curtail classes until the problem could be remedied.

J.P. Cressey, district engineer of the State Department of Public Works is examining suggestions for improved traffic safety in the Shawsheen area. The suggestions were provided by the Shawsheen P.T.A.

The state fire marshal has been called to investigate the blaze at the Friend's Lumber Co., off Lewis Street, due to the appearance of flammable material in the fire area.

10 Years Ago - February, 1965

The High School Building committee looked at revised plans for the proposed building this week and appear satisfied with the changes.

A lackluster political campaign comes to a close Monday amid tears of a meager response by the electorate.

Winning eight of nine events, the Andover High track team captured the North Shore indoor league championship last Friday.

Arthur G. Lebeck, 7 High Plain Road and Edward V. Seero, III, 15 Prospect Road, have been awarded state scholarships for the coming school year.

Edwin F. Reidel, 11 Princeton St., has been appointed head of the Lawrence office of the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

Off The Top Of The Desk

Some Andover ladies came up this week with a solution to the controversy over where to -- or not to -- build the JFK library-museum.

Why not, they said, suggest Campion Hall?

There's so much acreage there the museum and library wouldn't have to be separated, they argued. Furthermore, they said, it would keep the complex in Massachusetts where it belongs.

George S. Smith, Environmental Control Manager for Mobil Oil Corporation, will deliver the second in the "Great Explorations in Oceanography" lecture series at the New England Aquarium tonight at 7 p.m.

Smith, who is responsible for environmental programs associated with Mobil's exploration and producing activities, will speak on "Exploration and Drilling for North Sea Oil."

The current series at the Aquarium is sponsored by a grant from the Lowell Institute. All lectures are free and open to the public.

On March 6, David Hosom of Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution will discuss "The Voyages of the Deep Sea Submersibles Ben Franklin and Alvin."

The Environmental Intern Program at the Massachusetts Audubon Society announced this week that applications are available for their 1975 Summer Program.

The Intern Program staff solicits environmentally oriented jobs for the three-month summer period from public service agencies, municipal offices and private groups in New England and New York State.

The internships are salaried and open to people of all ages who have finished at least one year of college. The jobs involved cover a wide range of disciplines including the physical sciences, education, engineering and liberal arts.

Program Coordinator Susan

Woodward said a listing of internships and application forms are available in many college and university placement offices. They can also be obtained by contacting the Environmental Intern Program, Massachusetts Audubon Society, Lincoln, MA 01773; telephone (617) 259-9500.

The deadline for applications to the summer program is March 14, 1975.

Among the thousands of people in the Merrimack Valley, there are artists, performing arts facilities, and arts organizations. The Merrimack Valley Council on the Arts and Humanities has already collected many, soon to be published in a Resources Handbook. The need is great for establishing effective communications within the Merrimack Valley cultural community.

The Council is requesting the help of the public in locating painters, poets, dancers, actors, lecturers, creative writers; facilities for performances or cultural events; and the names of cultural or cultural support organizations. The names of contact persons, addresses, phone numbers, and details would be appreciated.

Please send your information to Merrimack Valley Council on the Arts and Humanities, 4 Summer Street, Room 303, Haverhill, MA 01830. Early 19th-century rural New Englanders, like most Americans today, faced high prices for sugar. But many farmers applied themselves to their land and secured sweetening while avoiding the expensive marketplaces.

Maple-sugaring, the process of taking sap from maple trees and converting it into the staple product, will be done March 1 to 23 at Old Sturbridge Village the way it was in the years after the Revolution.

Available in country stores some 150 years ago, while cane sugar was imported from the West Indies. It was expensive. Typically, sugar cost 13 cents a pound in an economy in the early 1830s when an unskilled worker's wage was 50 cents to a dollar a day.

Established farmers, unwilling to buy expensive imported sugar, turned to home production of maple sugar as a substitute.

In this way, these early Americans exercised thriftiness, gained a measure of economic independence, and protested the practice of slavery, an element in commercial cane sugar production.

Old Sturbridge Village is a recreated rural community interpreting the everyday life of New Englanders between 1790-1840, during the early consequences of the Revolution. The museum is located at the junction of Routes 20, Interstate 86 and the Mass. Turnpike, is open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. March 1-7, and 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. March 8 through 21.

Applications are now being accepted for admission to the two-year collegiate program in food and laboratory technology at the Essex Agricultural and Technical Institute.

The program offers an associate degree of applied science and includes studies in the areas of quality control, food processing, nutrition and analysis in the food industry. Students are qualified upon graduation to enter the food field as technicians, research assistants, quality control personnel, and regulatory inspectors in food and related industries.

An option may be chosen in this curriculum to prepare students as dietary technicians who are qualified to work in the dietary services of hospitals, nursing homes, and other food service facilities.

High school graduates interested in obtaining complete information should call or write the Director of Admissions, Essex Agricultural and Technical Institute, Hathorne, Mass. 01937.

Camp Fire Girls Have Outing

Fifteen Junior high girls from Andover, plus others from Wilmington and Chelmsford, recently spent a weekend at Camp Nawaka, a Camp Fire resident camp for older girls in East Otis, Mass.

Upon arriving by bus, the girls were assigned to groups for the cooking and cleaning up of all meals, which the girls themselves planned. Ms. Joan Kuhlavik from the Boston office led the girls in some activities needed for achieving rank in Progression in Outdoor, such as compass and hiking games. Other activities were sledding and ice skating. The girls brought roll-up sleds and their own skates.

All 27 girls used money earned selling candy last fall, individual group dues money, and other fund raising projects towards their trip expenses. They had the opportunity to meet new friends and also learn to work together in unfamiliar situations. The weekend closed with a Friendship Circle and Prayer of Thanksgiving. Those groups participating were Mrs. Shirley Baldwin's of Andover, Mrs. Faye McLaughlin's of Wilmington, and Mrs. Barbara Levesque's of Chelmsford.

A seascape mural painted by Mrs. E. Marilyn Lawson, left, Andover artist, shown with Mrs. Polly Downes of North Andover. Mrs. Downes and her husband, Don, commissioned Marilyn to paint the 6' x 8' mural as a gift to each other for their new home. Marilyn, who has shown her work in numerous places and won many awards, had never before undertaken such a large assignment. Working from a special staging and on a larger scale was a different experience for Mrs. Lawson, who found it interesting and enjoyable.

Junior League Assisting

The Junior League of Boston, Inc. is spreading its trained volunteers to the North Shore communities of Marblehead and Andover North Andover through a program to assist school systems with teaching its learning disabled students.

A training course was held in October at Merrimack College directed by Ms. Linda Falk, who defined the role of the paraprofessional in tutoring learning disabled children and was sponsored by the Junior League of Boston, Inc. Volunteers are now participating in the selected school systems once a week, working on a one to one ration with students. The school systems are cooperating with ongoing training and supervision for the volunteers.

Mrs. Henry L. Herbst of Andover and Mrs. Carson C. Dillon of Essex are coordinating volunteer programs throughout the North Shore. Mrs. Charles Salisbury is acting community chairman for the Andover area. Other Junior League members participating in the volunteer program are Mrs. Thomas Haley of Boxford, Mrs. Harry G. Carpenter and Mrs. Bruce O. Davis of Ipswich, and Mrs. Richard R. Gourdeau of Wenham.

Art Program Initiated

The Junior League of Boston, Inc. is currently working to make art more relative to student's daily lives through its project, Art Goes To School.

Staffed by Junior League members, the 30 minute programs that illustrated familiar subjects in various art forms are being made available to North Shore school systems.

The American Art program has been presented in the Salem public school by these trained volunteers. The American Indian and Art of the North Shore; Then and Now, will soon be available for presentation. Art of the North Shore, was developed to emphasize the approaching bicentennial by showing how the North Shore's artistic heritage is used creatively today.

Presentations are suggested for Grades 3-7. Mrs. Clark Smith of Wenham is chairman of the project and Mrs. Sage Walcott of Gloucester is assistant chairman. Junior League volunteers working with the presentations are Mrs. Donald M. Barber, Mrs. Charles Hatfield and Mrs. Benneville N. Strohecker of Marblehead, Mrs. F. Burnham Chapman of Wenham, Mrs. John H. Dyett, Jr. of Magnolia, Mrs. James E. Griffith of Lynnfield, Mrs. Robert E. Young of Andover, Mrs. James F. St. Clair of Manchester, Mrs. Albert R. Dow of Hamilton, Mrs. Stewart Newland, Jr. of Boxford, Mrs. Vanner G. Fairfield of Gloucester, Mrs. Berrion Moore, III, of Dover, N.H. and Mrs. John R. Pegela of Rye, N.H.

Card Party Is Planned

The Andona Society will hold a dessert-card party Tuesday, March 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the Andover Country Club.

Mrs. Frank Dyer and Mrs. Michael Kinsella, co-chairmen, will be assisted by Mrs. John Fuchs on decorations; Mrs. Robert Watkinson, main table; Mrs. Paul Oskar, Jr., waitresses; Mrs. John Reddington, finances; Mrs. Joseph Schoonover, tickets; Mrs. John McGarry, desserts; and Mrs. Gerald Reynolds, publicity.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Schoonover, or any Andona member. Proceeds will be used for programs to benefit Andover youths.

AAUW To Meet Tonight

The February meeting of the American Association of University Women will be held this evening at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Sondra Finegold, Tewksbury.

Welcoming hostesses will be Anne Osborn of Boxford, Janet Richmond of Andover and Lorraine Cocolis of North Chelmsford. Two recipients of AAUW Fellowships will be the guest speakers: Judith Berman, a Ph.D. candidate at Boston University in the field of learning disabilities, and Margaret Connors, a doctoral candidate at Harvard University's Joint Center for Urban Studies.

Following the speakers, refreshments of wine and cheese will be served by Virginia Reck and Mary Katis of Andover, Barbara Perlman of Georgetown and Karen Lorrey of Lowell.

The AAUW has been pleased with the response to its Operation Red Ball Fire Rescue

Program. Now, through the help of the Howe Insurance Agency, Smart and Flagg Insurance, and the Bernardin Insurance Agency, a new supply of red ball decals is at the Andover Fire Station on Main Street along with instructions for the placement of the decals in the windows of your home are also at the fire station.

Mrs. Reeta Horton of Andover has been chairman of this community service project and with the success of the program in Andover, AAUW hopes to institute it in other area towns.

is sunday school out-of-date?

It's never out-of-date to understand God, and man, and the true nature of the universe.

This understanding is what young people up to the age of 20 gain in our Sunday School.

They're taught a warm and practical Christianity, and how to apply it to everyday problems.

And as they study the Bible, together with Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, they're preparing to help solve the world's problems in the most forward-looking, fresh, and effective way.

Wouldn't you like your children to visit this Sunday?

Anticoagulant Therapy Dependent On Test Program

Anticoagulants are one of the more common groups of drugs taken today by persons suffering from cardiovascular disease. Various deposits on the inside of the veins and arteries encourage blood to clot and cling. When this happens in the leg it is called thrombosis and atherosclerosis. If a clot remains in place, it may be painful but not too dangerous unless it blocks a major artery. However, if a clot breaks loose and lodges in the heart it may cause a myocardial infarction (heart attack); if it lodges in the brain, a stroke.

To prevent the formation of the clots, physicians prescribe anticoagulants which prevent the formation of certain compounds required for normal blood clotting. The amount prescribed, according to Dr. George C. Fuller of the University of Rhode Island College of Pharmacy, is carefully calculated by the doctor to prevent internal clotting while still allowing clotting in the case of an open wound.

"Patients on anticoagulant therapy must be alert for any signs that the anticoagulant is not producing a greater effect than is desired," he said.

There are many common factors which can change the blood levels of the anticoagulant without changing the dosage, he continued. "For example, common non-prescription drugs such as aspirin will release the anticoagulant from its normal storage places in the body, making blood less 'clotable' than the same dosage would without the aspirin. Because of this, patients should be aware that any new medication, even non-prescription drugs, may alter the anticoagulant's effectiveness. Long-term use of any additional drugs should always be approved by their physician."

Safe and effective anticoagulant therapy depends upon the patient being aware of symptoms such as nosebleeds, bleeding gums, small broken blood vessels under the skin that may look like bruises or the presence of blood in the urine or fecal material. In event of any of these symptoms, the patient should notify his physician immediately. Regular blood tests will often detect problems before noticeable symptoms appear. Therefore it is important that patients adhere to the testing schedule recommended by their physician.

"Many patients have a tendency to skip their tests," Dr. Fuller said. "It is one of the biggest problems hampering a good therapy program."

Dr. Fuller also suggests that patients on anticoagulants carry an identification card or bracelet giving the name of the drug, amount, and name of the physician. "In an accident situation, this information could save a patient's life," he said.

Further information on anticoagulants and other therapy for cardiovascular disease is available in free pamphlet form from your local heart association.

Vacation Activities Draw 800

Some 800 Andover youngsters participated in the Recreation/Community Schools Department winter vacation program. Most popular of the variety of vacation activities was the movie "Babes in Toyland," which attracted over 200 children.

Open gyms for elementary and Junior High youth drew 275 for basketball, gymnastics and floor hockey.

A "Play with Clay" program was attended by more than 50 children, and an "Arts and Crafts" program enjoyed by another 35 youngsters.

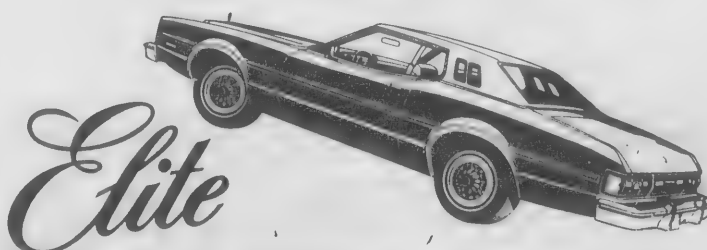

Skiing programs conducted at Merrimack Valley Ski Area including an instructional ski class, a ski racing clinic and a ski race before an audience of some 50 Andover residents.

Roller skating at the Hi-Hat Roll-A-Way in Lowell was the center of attraction for another 18 residents looking for something different to do, and 100 more youngsters found competition, exercise and fun at Andover Lanes where the Recreation/Community Schools Department was sponsoring its first winter vacation bowling tournament.

Anyone with program suggestions for spring vacation may contact Mark Klempa at the Recreation/Community Schools Department office.

Snow is a mixture of about 10 parts air to one part ice. The air spaces between ice crystals trap the heat from the earth. When snowmobiles compact snow they destroy these spaces. Voles, shrews and field mice die in the cold of compacted snow, plants are weakened and soil bacteria growth is retarded, the Massachusetts Audubon Society reports.

We'll Be Happy To Explain Value and Economy For Your Tire Dollars.

These days we all like to make sure we're getting the most for our money. That's why we'd like you to know the facts about why we believe the Michelin 'X' to be your best tire buy.

Every Michelin 'X' tire is backed by a 40,000 mile warranty for tread wear on domestic cars. That's just about twice the mileage you'd expect from a conventional tire under the same driving conditions. Also, because of its radial design the Michelin 'X' rolls with less road resistance than conventional tires, and that means you can save up to 10% on your present gas consumption (pretty good considering today's fuel crisis). Plus, every Michelin 'X' tire gives you all the distinctive radial tire advantages over conventional bias-ply tires: smoother ride, easier handling, better traction and firmer road holding. And, they add up to a lot of comfort and safety.

Invest in better driving. Stop in and have a set of Michelin 'X' radials installed today.

Think radial... and

See The Newest Volkswagens At Park-Hegarty Volkswagen
Gas economy and dependability are the "buy-words" of the auto industry today. But there's another word that means the same thing - Volkswagen! See the newest models in this fine family of automobiles at Park-Hegarty Volkswagen, 248 Haverhill Street, Methuen. Take a test drive and convince yourself.
The Rabbit, shown here, offers reduced car space without reducing people space. The key to this car is its engine, which enables the Rabbit to go from 0 to 60 in 11.5 seconds and gives 38 mpg. on the highway. It is mounted sideways, giving you more leg and arm space.
If you're looking for beauty in a small car, see the new Scirocco. With its body-contoured bucket seats, color coordinated upholstery, plush carpeting and spacious trunk, the Scirocco is obviously a luxury car, yet it can go from 0 to 60 in just 11 seconds and gets 38 mpg. on the highway.
Of course, Park-Hegarty also features the popular Dasher, The Thing, Volkswagen Bus, Campermobile, Super Beetle, the familiar Beetle, etc. All cars are covered by the Volkswagen Owner's Security Blanket.
See Walter Greenlay, Sales Manager, or any of the friendly salesmen at Park-Hegarty's beautiful showrooms, 248 Haverhill Street in Methuen.

Counsel Looks Into Overcharges

The Andover School Committee Tuesday night directed Counsel James Murphy to continue to look into the matter of $200 in bus route overcharges.

The matter has actually been pending since October, when the administration reported that certain bus drivers had been submitting erroneous mileage on the kindergarten runs.

"I said the committee was in error in not monitoring the mileage better," Chairman Frank Griggs said this week, but the committee voted 3-2 at the time to seek restitution for overcharges since the beginning of this school year.

One driver had been overcharging only about a mile a day, it turned out, and the administration sent a letter to a second driver seeking about $200 in restitution.

Eight More CETA Jobs Available

Eight new jobs with the town and school department have been approved under Title II of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (ACT) and applications are now being received.

The new positions include painter, maintenance man, clerk-typist, civilian dispatcher, two floating custodians, and two clerical assistants.

Interested persons may apply directly at the CETA office, 90 Broadway Lawrence.

All jobs expire August 30, 1975.

Streets Improved

During the second half of 1974, 12.9 miles of Andover Streets were treated with asphalt and sand, as well as being honed.

Streets resurfaced with a layer of bituminous concrete included Haverhill Street, a distance of 2,100 feet and High Plain Road, 1,050 feet.

At the First District Court of Eastern Middlesex, holden at Malden, within the County of Middlesex, for civil business, on the eleventh day of February A.D., 1975.

GEORGE SWARTZ, doing business as Village Green West of Boston, in the County of Suffolk, Plaintiff, vs. ROBERT F. YOUNG, of North Andover, in the County of Essex, Defendant, and The Malden Savings Bank, a Massachusetts Banking corporation duly organized and established by law and having an usual place of business in Malden, Middlesex County, Trustee.

This is an action of Contract to recover $1,800.00 dollars, alleged to be due to the Plaintiff from the Defendant on the thirtieth day of July A.D., 1970, as set forth in the Plaintiff's writ of that date.

And it appearing to the Court, by the suggestion of the Plaintiff, and on inspection of the officer's return on the plaintiff's writ, that the officer was unable to find the Defendant or his last and usual place of abode, tenant, agent or attorney in this Commonwealth known to the Plaintiff or to said officer, and that no personal service of said writ has been made upon the Defendant.

It is ordered by the Court, here, that the Plaintiff give notice to the Defendant ROBERT F. YOUNG of the pendency of this action, and to appear before said Court, to be holden at Malden aforesaid, on the seventh day of April, 1975 next, to answer to the same, by causing a true and attested copy of this order to be published in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper printed in Andover in said county of Essex, once in a week, three weeks successively, the last publication to be at least fourteen days before the said last mentioned date; and that this action be continued to the said last mentioned day, or until notice shall have been given to the Defendant, agreeably to this order.

Charred beams are all that remain of the John Forbes barn which burned early Tuesday morning at 116 Osgood St. The fire department is investigating the blaze, but no cause has been determined.

Barn Fire Investigated

The Andover Fire Department and State Fire Marshal's office continue this week to investigate the cause of a fire which destroyed a barn at 116 Osgood Street early Tuesday morning.

The barn, which was used only for storage by owner John Forbes, was the fifth to burn in Andover in recent months.

However, no evidence that the fire was of "suspicious" nature had surfaced as of press time.

The Fire Department responded to the blaze at 2:17 a.m., after being alerted by Larry Hesenius, who lives around the corner on Blanchard Street. His wife, awakened by their infant, had first seen the flames. Later reports said they were seen from as far as a mile away.

The trucks returned to headquarters shortly after 4 a.m., leaving only the skeleton of the barn behind.

Meanwhile, suspects held in connection with earlier fires remained at Danvers State Hospital this week, after doctors had obtained an additional 20 days for observation.

Kenneth J. McConnell of North Quincy and Walter A. Disbrow of 259 Chandler Road, had been arrested early on February 4 following a fire at the home of Charles A. Kirk, 65 Haggetts Pond Road. They were also charged with a Sept. 9 fire which killed several horses in the Kirk barn, and one on October 7 which destroyed a barn of William Stevens, 4 Lovejoy Road.

If "beano" is accepted again, the game will continue to be licensed here until 1979 -- when the selectmen may once again return it to the ballot.

Polling places for Monday's election are: Precinct 1, Free Christian Church; Precinct 2, Baptist Church; Precinct 3, Cardinal Cushing Gymnasium; Precinct 4, West Elementary; Precinct 5, Ballard Vale United Church; Precinct 6, Peabody House, Phillips Academy.

HUD Program For Elderly

(Continued from Page One) said, is trying to provide the wherewithal for senior citizens on low or moderate incomes to live in a better environment.

The potential for the program just recently came about through the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974.

Cohen said he had tried to develop a simple program, and one which would meet some local needs, for the town's first attempt at the 100 percent funding.

Basically, he said, it would require hiring of a housing improvement officer for both inspection and administrative duties. He would be supervised by town officials.

"All of us are terribly concerned about the plight of senior citizens," said Selectman Chairman Milton Greenberg, before the unanimous decision in favor of the program.

"How can you afford not to?" asked Selectman Janet Lake, "if it does what Sheldon intimates it will at little cost to the town." She added that it would not only benefit senior citizens, but would create jobs for carpenters, painters, roofers, and the like, as well.

Cohen, who helped establish the first local rehabilitation loan program in the country in Norfolk, Va., said he was "pleased that the Selectmen has seen fit to proceed."

The application will first have to undergo regional review via the Merrimack Valley Planning Commission, as any project under federal funding, he said. However, he didn't anticipate the MVPC would be any problem.

Then the application would be due at HUD by May 15.

The First Church of Christ Scientist, 278 North Main Street, Andover, was organized in 1950 and became a church in 1963. The present building was dedicated in 1967.
